I have completed this application and submitted the total amount of the entry fee for participation in this tournament. I recognize that tournament fishing carries with it a variety of risks and hazards, including, without limitation, the possibility of personal injury, death, and/or loss to property, whether resulting from environmental conditions, equipment use or malfunction, collision with objects, capsizing, and/or the negligence of other boaters or fishermen. In consideration of the privilege to fish in this tournament, I hereby agree to waive, release, hold harmless, defend and indemnify the tournament officials, the Oregon Hawg Hunter Bass Club (including its members), sponsors, organizers, and all City, State and Federal Agencies from and against any and all claims of injury and/or property damage incurred in conjunction with, and/or relating in any manner to, this event. I further agree to take a lie detector test if requested by the tournament director for any reason related to the rules and regulations of this tournament. I hereby declare that I currently possess, and shall possess on the date of the tournament, boat insurance in an amount no less than $300,000.00.
